

Honouring the life of

Tony Holmes

07.11.1945 – 21.01.2023

My Husband

I love you more every day, and as time passes, I realize how blessed I am to have you. I can see how much you love me when you look at me. I can feel that love with your embrace. Thank you for all you are and for being my husband.

Elizabeth gave this card to Tony not long after they got married. He has had it in his wallet ever since. He read it regularly.
